Name: _____ Date: _____

This is going to give you the space to analyze the company's interview process using the following steps. You're required to fill this out and submit it at least three times over the next year (for three companies), but we recommend doing it every time you have an interview — when you do land an interview & fill it out, submit it at that point.

Company Name: _____

Part 1: Checklist

Online Assessment

- ☐ I have completed 10+ tagged medium LeetCode problems from that company, sorted by frequency.

Behavioral Interview

Answer these questions in 2-3 sentences:

“Tell me about yourself.”

“Why do you want to work at this company?”

“Tell me about a time where you had to learn a new language or framework to accomplish a goal.”

“When was a time that you failed at something, and why?”

“What are your strengths and weaknesses?”

How good would you say your communication and teamwork skills are and why?

Coding Interview

- ☐ I have practiced LeetCode problems with the style of a coding interview (on a piece of paper, whiteboard, or chalkboard) & spoke out loud.

Work Simulation Assessment

Normally, these would be tailored to the company's core values, but here are some general questions to help you practice.

1. You see someone taking extra long lunch breaks which doesn't disrupt your work, but is slowly putting that coworker behind. What do you do?
2. Your team leader is consistently coming in 20 minutes late to work putting everyone behind but always has an elaborate excuse. What do you do?
3. Your coworker comes to you saying that a fellow employee is allegedly stealing small items from the office, what do you do?

Super Day/Onsite Interview/Panel Interview

- ☐ I am confident in passing a behavioral, technical and situational assessment

Part 2: Questionnaire
